

Mediterranean City-to-City Migration

Dialogue, Knowledge and Action

Thematic Peer-to-Peer Meeting:

Fostering equality and socio-educational inclusion of migrants.

Building an educating city

Palazzo Cisterna - via Maria Vittoria 12 – Turin

11 and 12 July 2017

Agenda

Implemented by

In collaboration with

Monday, 10 July 2017

Afternoon

Participants' arrival

19h00 - 20h00

Welcoming event (Italian Food style education - <http://ifse.it/es/> -

Tuesday, 11 July 2017

08:30- 09:00

Participants' registration

09:00 - 09:15

Welcoming Statements

Chiara Appendino – Mayor of the Metropolitan City of Turin and the City of Turin

Anna Merlin – Political delegate for the International relations of the Metropolitan City of Turin

Barbara Azzarà – Political delegate for instruction and professional training of the Metropolitan City of Turin

09:15 – 09:30

Session I: Setting the scene of the meeting

Objective of the Session: Present the structure and methodology of the meeting, as well as partners and participating cities.

Lamine Abbad, Project Officer, UCLG Learning team

09:30 – 11:00

Session II: Generating a common understanding of the educating role of cities: concepts, tools and contribution to migrants' inclusion process

Objective of the session: To discuss the idea, main stakeholders and policies of your territory on the topic. The goal of this session is to build a common understanding of the educational role of cities and to see how this contributes to migrants' inclusion. Participants' point of views will then be benchmarked against the Background Paper. This document will be revised after the event according to the output of the session.

Guiding questions for an interactive discussion:

- Who are the main stakeholders for education in your city?
- What kind of support does your municipality give to these stakeholders?
- Beyond schools, what is the educational strategy of your city?
- How would you define an educating city?

Intervention: Enrica Pejrolo, Head of the Service for professional training, Metropolitan City of Turin

Moderator: Sheila González, Consultant of UCLG on Education and Migration

11:00 - 11:30

Coffee Break

11:30 - 13:30

Session III: Municipal practices and interventions in the field of education: cities' driving role for equal opportunities and social inclusion of migrants

Objective of the Session: To share municipal programs and policy actions to enhance the inclusion of migrants through formal and non-formal education (equal access to schools, kindergarten, educational leisure, workers' training, libraries...).

Guiding questions for an interactive discussion:

- What are the main educational facilities and services existing in your municipality?
- What kind of support does your municipality give to educational centres existing in your territory?
- What policy measures does your municipality have / could have to ensure an equal access of migrants to these centres, facilities and services?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are these policy measures monitored? If not, how could they be monitored?
	Moderator: Ana Feder, Project Manager, Regional Coordination Office for the Mediterranean, ICMPD
13:30 - 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 18.00	Session IV: Field Visit in San Salvario neighbourhood <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bay school (Kindergarden) • ASAI : www.asai.it • Casa del Quartiere : http://www.casadelquartiere.it
18:00 - 19:00	Casa del Quartiere - Q & A on the field visit and sharing of experiences
19.00 – 21.00	Casa del Quartiere (Bagni Municipali: http://www.bagnimunicipali.org/) – Dinner

Wednesday, 12 July 2017

08h45 – 09:00	Welcoming coffee
09:00 – 11:00	Session V: The unknown and undervalued educational role of cities: how to promote education through sectoral policies Objective of the Session: To explore the educational dimension of certain sectoral policies. To acknowledge the educational role of cities beyond established competence frameworks. Guiding questions for interactive discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Which sectoral policies in your city already include or could include an educational dimension? • What kind of educational activities are being or could be implemented through sectoral policies in your municipality? • What is or could be the added value in your territory of including an educational strategy to sectoral policies? Moderators: Albert Salarich and M^a Ángeles Cabeza (tbc), Secretariat of the International Association of Educating Cities (IAEC)
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:30	Session VI: Cities' educational role and actions to promote values of coexistence, recognition and valorisation of differences Objective of the Session: To exchange on existing municipal participatory mechanisms and intercultural policies to foster the inclusion of migrants. To reflect on the transmission of values (civic behaviours, active citizenship, acknowledgement of differences, etc.) through these mechanisms and policies. Guiding questions for interactive discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How can sectoral policies promote coexistence and valorise differences? • Through which sectoral policies can a city build its identity on the basis of the different communities living in its territory? • What are the values your municipality promotes in relation to coexistence and diversity? • To what extent do you build your values taking into and learning from the different communities living in your territory? • How do you communicate and educate on such values, including reaching migrants' groups?

Moderator: Jesús Salcedo, Housing Unit, UN-Habitat

13:30 – 14:30

Lunch

14:30 – 16:30

Session VII: Working session : toward a shared framework of action and common policy recommendation of the MC2CM project

Objective of the Session: To present the preliminary policy recommendations drawn from the Project's activities and reports. To discuss the relevance of these recommendations and collect proposals of amendments from participating cities.

Presentation: Gemma Pinyol, UCLG consultant on migration

Moderator: Eva Garcia Chueca, Program Officer, UCLG Learning team

16:30 – 17:00

Session VIII: Wrap up and closing

Anna Merlin – Political delegate for the International relations of the Metropolitan City of Turin

Lamine Abbad, Project Officer, UCLG Learning team