A topographic map of the Ceresole Reale area in Italy. The map features a dense network of blue lines representing the river system, with several larger blue areas indicating lakes. A prominent yellow line highlights a specific path or boundary, possibly a road or a specific watershed. The terrain is depicted with brown contour lines. The map is framed by a red border, and several grid coordinates are visible: 414SE at the top center, 411S at the top right, 413NE in the center, 412NO on the right, 413SE at the bottom center, and 412SO at the bottom right. The name 'Ceresole Reale' is printed in the center-right area.
